

NOVA SCOTIA BARRISTERS' SOCIETY

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

The Nova Scotia Barristers' Society is pleased to request nominations for the Distinguished Service Award.

The purpose of the Distinguished Service Award is to recognize a member of the Nova Scotia Barristers' Society who has made significant contributions to the community, the profession and the Society. It is open to both practising lawyers and non-practising members. In some circumstances, it may be granted posthumously.

Nominations for the award may be submitted by members of the Society and the public before April 16, 2012.

The name of the recipient and the date of the function at which the award will be presented will be published in InForum and The Society Record and posted on the Society's website.

The committee will choose a recipient based on the following considerations:

Integrity

The recipient is of unimpeachably good character, with a reputation for the highest professional integrity.

Professional Achievement

The recipient is or has been amongst the leaders in the practice of law or the academic realm.

Service to the Profession

The recipient has made long-term, exceptional volunteer contributions to the legal profession and the Society.

Community Service

The recipient has made long-term, exceptional volunteer contributions to the community.

Reform

The recipient has made an outstanding contribution to the betterment of the law or the improvement of the justice system.

Overall

The recipient exemplifies the highest ideals of the legal profession and is a person to whom all members of the profession can look for inspiration.

A copy of the nomination form is also available on the Society website at www.nsbs.org/forms
