

NOVA SCOTIA BARRISTERS' SOCIETY

LAW SCHOOL RECOMMENDED COURSES POLICY

1.1 Advice Routinely Requested

1.1.1 Each year, numerous law students contact the Society to request advice about which courses they should study in law school.

Recommended Courses

1.1.2 The Society tests the legal knowledge of applicants by way of the Nova Scotia Bar Examination. Knowledge of the substantive law in the following subject areas will help prepare students to write the examination and to practice in Nova Scotia:

- a) Administrative Law
- b) Business Organizations
- c) Civil Procedure
- d) Commercial Transactions
- e) Constitutional Law
- f) Contracts
- g) Criminal Law
- h) Evidence
- i) Ethics/Professional Responsibility
- j) Family Law
- k) Real Estate/Advanced Property Law
- l) Torts
- m) Wills and Probate.

Approved by the Credentials Committee - October 31, 2008