

NOVA SCOTIA BARRISTERS' SOCIETY

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

The Distinguished Service Award is presented to a member of the Barristers' Society who has made significant contributions to the community and the profession. It is open to both practising lawyers and non-practising members (including retired and life members). In some circumstances, it may be granted posthumously.

Nominations for the award may be submitted by members of the Society and the public before November 28, 2025.

The name of the recipient and the date of the function at which the award will be presented will be published in InForum and posted on the Society's website.

The committee will choose a recipient based on the following criteria:

Integrity

The recipient is of unimpeachably good character, with a reputation for the highest professional integrity.

Professional Achievement

The recipient is amongst the leaders in the practice of law or the academic realm.

Service to the Profession

The recipient has made long-term, exceptional volunteer contributions to elevate the legal profession through work with one or more of the following: the Society, the justice system, legal scholarship or otherwise.

Community Service

The recipient is an outstanding contributor to the community, through volunteer service and a commitment to making the world a better place.

Reform

The recipient has made an outstanding contribution to the betterment of the law or the improvement of the justice system.

Overall

The recipient espouses the highest ideals of the legal profession and is a person to whom all members can look for inspiration.
